

DIXIE WINNERS AT FBLA CONFERENCE—At the Future Business Leaders of America District II Leadership Conference held on Saturday, February 4, at the Lexington Technology Center in Lexington, SC, Dixie High School students were the recipients of numerous district awards.

Alyssa Hayes won 1st place in the Business Calculations competition. Riley Kneiding won 1st and Kalee Davenport placed 5th in Business Procedures; Eric Cheek placed 2nd, Jacob Eller placed 3rd, and Janie Sullivan placed 4th in Business Math; Chelsea Lloyd placed 2nd and Brooke Campbell placed 3rd in Word Processing I; Camden Rowland placed 2nd and Jenea Bowen placed 4th in Introduction to Business; Anne Marie Ferguson placed 3rd in Introduction to Business Communication; Drew Pearman placed 4th and Kelsey Eller placed 5th in Job Interview; Savanna Edwards placed 5th in Business Communications.

All of these FBLA members are eligible to represent Abbeville County in the State Competitions to be held in Charleston in March. FBLA-PBL is the largest business career student organization in the world. The high school division has over 215,000 members. Dixie FBLA advisors are Gaye McKee and Beverly Spivey.

Photo ID:

FBLA CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS. Front Row: Camden Rowland, Brooke Campbell, Kalee Davenport, Riley Kneiding, Jacob Eller, Karen Youngblood, Kensley Carwile, Janie Sullivan. Back Row: Drew Pearman, Kelsey Eller, Chelsea Lloyd, Alyssa Hayes, Jenea Bowen, Eric Cheek, Anne Marie Ferguson, Savanna Edwards, Samantha Lein, Anna Nelson, Luci Devore.