

Beta Geeks

Forty-nine students were inducted into the National Junior Beta Club of Westwood Elementary School on Tuesday, November 27, 2012. As part of their initiation into Beta Club, members voted to dress as “Beta Geeks”. Their “Geek” look included glasses with or without tape over the nose, suspenders with waistlines pulled up, pants legs rolled up short enough to see their socks (highwaters), etc. They wore these with pride as they communicated “It Is Cool To Be Smart!” (no matter what you wear)
